" Circulation Rooks Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, JUNE 2), 1893.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Saturday and Sunday === World's House and Home Days.

LOWLANDER THE WINNER.

The Suburban Handicap of 1893 Run at Sheepshead Bay To-Day.

TERRIFIER FINISHES SECOND.

Bright Skies and a Fervid Sun Over the Coney Island Jockey Club Track.

THOUSANDS SEE THE RACE

Scenes of Morning at the Course-Gathering of the Crowds of Race-Goers.

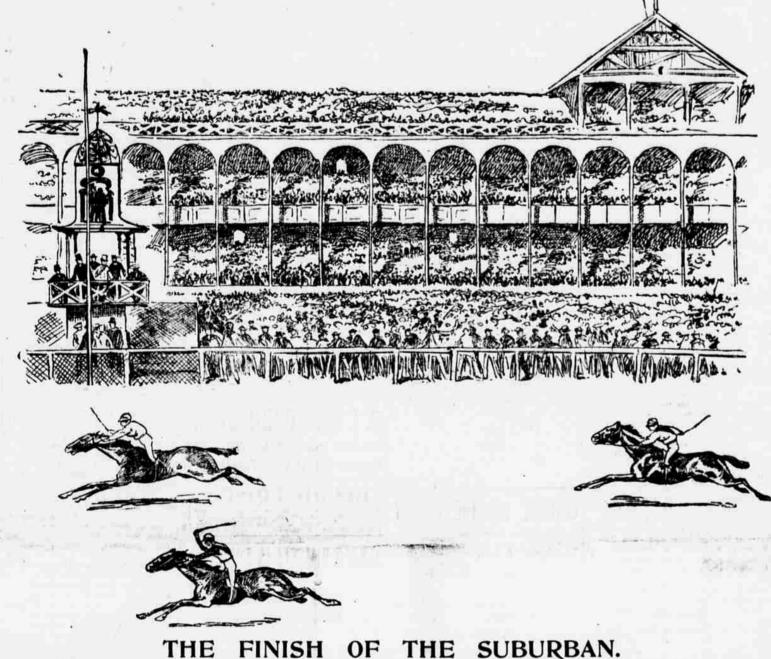

SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK June 20.—The Suburban Handicap of 1890 has just been run.

DESTRUCTION OF

POURTH BACK

Lowlander, Never Headed, Wins by Half & Longth. SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, June

More than the control of the control

he day's sport should be taken from its spacious grounds.

The Club refused to allow any copy to e sent from the track for newspapers ntil after the fourth race. It refused also to allow the news to be transed pool-room man might be listening and get the information.

A HOT SUBURBAN DAY.

Suburban Day this year opened sheepshead bay race trace, June 20.—The Suburban of 1803 has brought its supprises.

After several breaks the flag dropped to a flood start.

The crowd began to arrive early. Lowlander jumped to the front and set such a terrific pace that going by the stand the field was all strung out.

Lowlander was in front, with Terrifer second. Idealets was third and Dr. Has-bid lidealets was third and Dr. Has-bid lidealets was third and Dr. Has-bid lidealets with a flood start.

With intensified warmth.

Every breath of air that reached the parched throats of the thirsty race goer.

In the stand were upward of a hundred women, carefully dusting and wip-fired women, carefully dusting receive a large crowd. Hundreds of men were at work in the early hours slicing bread and meat for sandwiches. These were stacked up in great heaps, and damp cloths were placed over them to keep them fresh until the ravenous crowd arrives from the city. Others were rolling kegs of beer about and stowing them away in convenient Suburban Day this year opened and places. Great mountains of pie, the continued bright, clear and red hot sight of which would throw the average in every way. A pittless sun beat down on the track with flery fervor. The brick lawn sent back the heat with intensified warmth.

paper correspondents' office stopped with a sharp click.
"Cut, by Jingo," ejaculated the operator.
The Western Union lineman, however, hooked on to another wire, and soon had connection with New York once more. An "Evening World" reporter investigated and found that the wires had been cut in two in the woods on the grounds of the Jockey Club. A further investigation revealed the fact that Supt. Frank Clark, of the Coney Island Jockey Club, was the man who ordered the wires cut out.

Island Jockey Club, was the man who ordered the wires cut out.

Mr. Clark sent word to Police Capt. Garrett Morris, of the Sheepshead Bay police, and this official ordered things about in the mest summary fashion. Clark threatens that he will cut down the Westert Union poles in front of the Jockey Club grounds.

When asked why he had ordered the newspaper wires cut out the Captain said: "Because other despatches are being sent over that wire."

"That is untrue," retorted the reporter, "and it can be proven to you."

"It don't make any difference," said the Captain; "no newspaper's stuff can be sent over that wire."

Swarms of Pinkerton men line the outside fences and roads surrounding the Club's grounds. It will be a hard matter for news to escape by any of pocket set sail for Lizzie, but she could never quite get up. 1.4zzie won by a short head. Picknocket

$1,000, for all ages; entrance, $15.

Post Betting-Acide, 8 to 5 and 8 to 5; Tormen' tor, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5. May Who, 5 to 1 and 8 to 5; Poor Junatian, 7 to 1 and 5 to 2; Kingsteek, 10 to 1 and 4 to 1. Airplant, 20 and a to 1; Inget, 100 and 40 to 1; Bess McDuff, 100 and 40 to 1. Time-1.12

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, June O.—The attendance at the Hilltop to-tar so. But it was not Lizzie Andrew Borwas, of course, greatly affected by the runden who came down those stairs to ning of the Suburban, but nevertheless a Starfers.	Weights	Jackers.	Start.	Hall	Fin.

dag ie K	91	K. Tribe		-32.	13
	103	dendrid	u _ a	- 746	- 37
les belt	21	.F. Wall	me u	100
200000000000000000000000000000000000000	107	.F. Doct		4
	99			â	6
eon T	97	Donabu	51 S	4	7
HI D		H. Jone		8
.ungard	4 107	N. Hill.	10		. 9
attle Gran	4107	M. Don'	*'n10	10	10
lak Laun.	107	Jone	• 11	11	11
	107			13	12
Post Betti	ng-Maggie	K., 8 to	5 and 3	to 5:	MAX.
	mardo, 5 an			. 6 41	1d 2
Limanos, H	and 3: Lee	3 T., 12	BE DE		***
CHAR LAWD	10 Lopes	nen Ala	8B 20 8	គឺ  ំ  ំ	F 186
	tie Grand, 6			B113 42	**
	h. made a			and	won 21.00

EIGHT PAGES.

LIZZIE NOT GUILTY

Verdict in the Borden Case Reached at New Bedford To-Day.

District Attorney Knowlton's Strong Effort for the Common wealth.

Murder of Mr. Borden Neces sary Because He Would Know His Wife's Slayer.

NEW BEDFORD, June 20.-The jury ands Lizzie Borden not guilty of the nurder of her father and stepmother. her and the two engaged in conversa-tion until court opened, when District-Attorney Knewlton picked up the thread

Inst night.

The counsel who opened the cause failure for the defense said motive was a part of the government's case, but the Lizzie n elucidating the facts in the case. o our reasoning to have discovered that must be reasonably consistent with family from which we can suspect even wickedness, the ingratitude had gone on to conclude by expert testimony, but under that roof for many, many months. were to apply to it a reasonable judg-"Because the lips of those who do ment. know but that some new phase had act was done by another party, but come up in the family life adding to that defendant was present, aiding and come up in the lating in the fact that defendant did the feeling of malice and jealousy exabetting. The fact that defendant did lating in this woman. No suggestion not testify should not influence them isting in this woman. No suggestion not plan to kill her father, and I hope neet her father, but a murderess, trans-barn was indefinite, and Medley's story refuted the defendant's alibi. The prisoner watched Mr. Knowlton fixedly dur-Mr. Knowlton argued that the silk fress produced by the defendant was Doherty and Dr. B ven. The search on the day of the murder was insufficient, but put the defendant on her guard, and Saturday's thorough therefore he claimed that it was con-Paper put over her dress would have protected the defendant's person, and burnt paper was found in the stove. TWO STORIES OF BURNING THE The two versions of the burning of defendant's dress were irreconcilable.

Defendant's conduct since the mur der was discussed, and Mrs. Reagan's story of the sisters' quarrel in the jail was declared to be true.

The production of a hatchet was no

was a part of its duty to produce all it knew bearing on the case.

Mr. Knowlton reviewed at length the evidence as to the handleless hatchet, and discussed its bearing on the case dwelling on the significance of its fitting the wounds and being broken short as if by design. After discussing again the matter of the missing note the District-Attorney briefly summarized his entire argument, claiming that the defense amounted to nothing, and closing at 12.05 with an eloquent appeal to the jury to decide as their consciences should direct. The court then took a recess till 1.45. LIZZIE SPEAKS: "I AM INNOCENT." At 1.45 the court resumed its session, and the defendant was given an oppor tunity to speak. She said: "I am innocent, but I will leave my case in your hands and with my coun-Justice Dewey then charged the jury.

He told them to disregard previous hearings, and defined the different degrees of murder. He stated the pre-sumption of innocence, which was increased by the defendant's character. There must be a real and operative Judge Dewey charged the jury weigh the evidence so as to see whether defendant's permanent state of mind Miss Borden entered the room at 8.55 showed a motive for the crimes. Every material allegation in the indictme must be proved beyond reasonable doubt, that is, to a moral certainty. He compared direct and circumstantia evidence and said that failure to prove the essential fact would be fatal, but failure to prove the helpful fact might speaker said this was not so, although were discussed at length, and he said the consideration of motive has weight the jury must be fully satisfied they were false to consider them as con-victing evidence. Every fact proved

The government need not show nobody else had the opportunity to attention to the way in which they commit the crime, but must prove de-lived under the same roof. It improves fendant committed it. The jury must me deeply, as I am sure it did you. The reason as to the effect of defendant's malice was all before the fact; the conduct and statements. They were not could be made by that poor man as in favor of his wife but would fan the flames into unquenchable fire.

"There may be that in this case which shows that Lizzie Andrew Borden did the state of the case is in your hands."

The jury retired at once.

The jury retired at once.

The jury retired at once.

COLLISION ON THE "L"

Rear-End Smash-Up Caused by

EIGHT PAGES.

That Was the Street Temperature at 4 P. M. To-Day.

Farmer Dunn's Thermometer Registered Almost as Much.

He Says This Is the Mottest June

New York has experienced this year," said Weather Prophet Dunn to an "Evening World" reporter this morning. "and the indications are that hottest June day was in 1888, and then But this morning the warm wave, which seems to have settled over the entire its work by sending the mercury in nineties. At 8 o'clock the temperature was 7 degrees, while three hours later it had jumped up to 89 degrees. No wonder Mr. Dunn declared that the prospects were that to-day would be a record-smasher for heat.

The warm wave which the entire country east of Kansas, is accompanied by very little range in the temperature, which seems to hang fire between 74 and 24 degrees.

People are perspiring this morning fast as freely in Philadelphia as in Jupiter and Key West, Fla., and there is just as similar condition of affairs exists in New Orleans and Marquette, Mich. In these places at 8 o'clock the ther-mometer registered 84 degrees, 76 de-weather will be just as warm as today.

At 1 o'clock the thermometers on the street registered 90 degrees.

At 2 o'clock the mercury in the thermometers slong Park Row had jumped up two points to 92 degrees.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Perry's thermometer registered 90 degrees, Fahrenhelt.

At 4 o'clock the mercury stood at 100.

It was still bubbling, and gave promise of climbing another notch or two.
The official thermometer in the Weather Bureau registered at 3 o'clock
6 degrees.
At 3.30 it was siziling at 56,
and at 4 o'clock the mercury had retreated to 94 degrees.

PROSTRATIONS IN THIS CITY.

Dr. A. H. Campbell, seventy years